SC declares ex-actor eligible as Laguna rep

THE SUPREMACY COURT HAS REINSTATED THE House of Representatives Electoral Tribunal (HRET) and declared Laguna Rep. Danilo Lim (LDP) eligible to run for re-election in the upcoming May 13 elections.

The court, in its decision, also declared that Lim was not disqualified from running for re-election because he was not a "disqualified" person under the 1987 Constitution.

Lim was previously declared ineligible to run for re-election because he was a "disqualified" person under the 1987 Constitution. The court, however, found that Lim was not a "disqualified" person under the 1987 Constitution.

Noynoy, Mar eye 'big win'

By Gail C. ...

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — President Benigno Aquino III and Vice President Noli de la Rosa are expected to win a landslide victory in the May 11 national elections, according to a recent survey.

The survey, conducted by the Social Weather Stations (SWS), shows that 70 percent of voters intend to vote for Aquino and de la Rosa in the May 11 polls.

The survey also shows that 65 percent of voters intend to vote for the Liberal Party (LP) in the May 11 polls.

The survey was conducted from May 1 to May 10, 2010, and is based on a sample of 1,000 voters.

The survey also shows that 65 percent of voters intend to vote for the LP in the May 11 polls.

Entire barangay leaves danger zone

By Maria Cecilia Alarcon

Government officials and residents of a barangay in Laguna have been relieved to learn that the entire community has been declared safe from the threat of a typhoon.

The barangay, which is located in the coastal area of the province, had been under a state of emergency since the arrival of the typhoon.

However, after several days of heavy rain and strong winds, the government officials have decided to lift the emergency declaration.

The residents of the barangay have been advised to remain vigilant and to be prepared for any further developments.

The government officials have also announced that they will continue to monitor the situation closely.
